WISTER'S "VIRGINIAN" WEDS IN REAL LIFE

John Henry Hicks, Hero of Wyoming Romance, Marries Newspaper Man's Daughter.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—A dispatch to The Tribune from San Francisco says: The original of Owen Wister's "The Virginian," John Henry Hicks, manager of the great "T. O." ranch in Mexico, was married yesterday to Miss Katherine Adams, daughter of Edward F. Adams, editorial writer on a San Francisco newspaper. Hicks first met her when she was a school teacher at Tempe, Arizona. Mexican friends sent him a box of a dozen dolls dressed to represent characters in Wister's story. Hicks and his wife will live on the "T. O." ranch, which is south of the Rio Grande, 150 miles from El Paso.

PAID HIS FINE.

Machinists Learn of Hard Luck of Member of Their Union.

George Wortham, a young white man, was arrested yesterday morning by Special Officer Angle. He was tried by Magistrate Angle, father of the special officer, and was fined $2.50 and costs, the total amount being $5.75. The only charge against the young man was that he had trespassed on railroad property. He was out of money, a good workman and out of work. In his pocket he carried a paid-up card in the Machinists' Union. The young man was trying to get to Richmond to find employment when he was nabbed, and besides the fine imposed the fees of the different ones who put in claims amounted to more than the $2.50.

When the union machinists of Richmond learned of the plight of their fellow-laborer yesterday afternoon, they got together and within a few minutes a committee was on its way to the Henrico Jail. The fine and the costs were paid, and the young man spent last night with sympathizing friends.

GETTING HOME IN ORDER.

Governor Montague Has Residence Re-opened.

Governor Montague has secured possession of his city residence, No. 1111 Grove Avenue, the lease of his tenant having expired, and he and Mrs. Montague are directing repairs to the house, with the view of moving there when they leave the mansion. The Governor will begin to have his furniture moved into his former residence about the last week in January. The house is being newly papered from top to bottom and put in thorough repair. While there is nothing ostentatious about Governor Montague's Richmond residence, it is quite pretty, and is one of the most conveniently located and appointed in the West-End.

ENGINEER JAS. LUCAS BURIED UNDER ENGINE

Fireman Missing and Two Train Hands Not Accounted for.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., January 3.—Speeding at a rate of 25 miles an hour a Southbound freight train on the Southern Railway left the track at the North Switch at Fair Forest, S. C., south of here this morning at 8:20 o'clock. After bumping over the tie for some distance it turned over burying Engineer James Lucas, of Greenville, under its massive weight, instantly crushing out his life. The fireman is known to have escaped injury, but this morning he cannot be found and theory is that he wandered away having been overcome by the shock. Ten cars followed the course of the train and completely blocked the way. It will probably require ten hours to clear up the track. A wrecking crew from Spencer is now at work. The supposition is that the derailment was due to the breaking of a rail at the switch connection. It is said two other trainmen are missing and may be under the debris. The engine and cars left the track and were piled together.

FOR MR. ZIMMERMANN.

Friends Tell Him He Got Votes Where None Were Returned.

Alderman William H. Zimmermann, of Madison Ward, who was one of the defeated candidates for City Treasurer in the recent contest, is being assured by friends that votes were cast for him where none were counted. Mr. B. Hassell editor of the German Advertiser, declares that both he and his father voted for Mr. Zimmermann at First Jefferson. The Alderman says other friends declare they voted for him there, but the returns show that he got nothing. It is explained that a number of defective ballots were thrown out at the First Jefferson, but Mr. Zimmermann is sure that the Messrs. Hassell understand how to mark a ticket correctly, and that their ballots were not defective.

Another thing that bothers the Alderman is that he got only thirty-three votes, according to the count. In all of Madison Ward, which he has served so long and so well on the Board. "But I shall take no steps in the matter," he said last night. "I know the result could not be altered, and I do not wish to put any one to trouble. I know nothing save what my friends tell me, but I had reason to expect a larger support in my own ward, and my friends assure me that I got at least ten or twelve votes in the First Jefferson. I shall, however, do nothing, but let the matter rest where it is."

AT THE CITY HOME.

Moving Picture Entertainment in the "Sunshine" Room.

Superintendent George B. Davis, of the City Home, had an entertainment in the "Sunshine" room last night for the benefit of the inmates, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

It consisted of stereoscopic views, and was given by the Enterprise Exhibition Company. The lecturer was Professor J. O. Goode. When the moving picture programme was over, Miss Irene Robertson gave a piano recital, and sang a number of popular songs. The aged people at the home were nearly all present, and they greatly enjoyed the entertainment.

GRAND OPERA IS SUNG WITHOUT A CHORUS

150 Members of Gounod's Faust Chorus Fail to Appear On Account of Strike.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, January 2.—Gounod's "Faust," was sung at the Metropolitan Opera House to-night without a chorus. The result of a strike of the recently organized chorus union. The union, on Monday, had demanded that salaries be raised nearly fifty per cent. Director Heinrich Conried told the members of the chorus that if they would come to him as individuals, he would use his best efforts to better their condition, but would refuse to treat with them as members of a labor union. "Tonight when the usual hour for reporting came none of the chorus put in an appearance. The opening of the opera was delayed until 8:25 o'clock, when the members of the ballet were grouped on the stage to make the scenes as effective as possible under the circumstances. The chorus members number about 150.

PREPARING THEIR REPORT

Legislative Committee of State School Board at Work.

The Legislative Committee of the State Board of Education held another session yesterday, but it was executive in its nature.

The committee was engaged in going over the suggestion submitted Tuesday night by prominent educators with reference to the needs of the various State institutions, as well as to changes in the present school laws. The committee did not complete its report which will be made to the Legislature, but accomplished considerable along this line.

Messrs. Kent, Anderson and West compose the committee.

The State Board of Examiners held a session yesterday and considered the form of examination for public school teachers for 1906.

Tobacco Salesmen Here.

There were no sales of loose tobacco on the local breaks yesterday, the receipts being practically nothing. The holiday season is about over now, however, and with favorable weather tobacco is expected to come in good quantity next week. The rain yesterday was rather cold, but was more favorable than otherwise to the handling of the weed.

Mrs. J. A. Fountain and daughter, Lillian, of Wilmington, N. C., who have been visiting Mrs. R. S. Brock at 210 South Fourth Street, left for home yesterday morning.
